To Jim Garrison from Harold Weisberg 3/17/68

Ferrie's threats against JFK

I may have forgotten to return to this in the taped interview with Pena, but he did tell me that Ferrie had more than once said that JFK should be killed for his performance (or lack of it) at the Bay of Pigs. I asked Pena if there was any possibility that this might have been a joke or a "colloguial expression". He said "No joke" and he made clear than Ferrie was quite serious.